The 1977-78 season will be remembered for the many great achievements made by Bill Laveroni's Highlanders. The Scots had very realistic hopes of finishing in first place of the ACAL league, but they suffered a setback in the league-deciding game against Encinal which cost them the championship and gave them a second-place finish in league play. Under the direction of the knowledgeable new coach, Bill Laveroni, the Scots were exposed to several new methods of coaching, most significant of those being the daily lunchtime chalk talks. The following players were chosen to be members of the all-league football team: Doug Albo, Dennis Chan, Dave Herrera, Geoff Resnik, Casey Ricksen, Dave Swan, and Jay Vukasin.

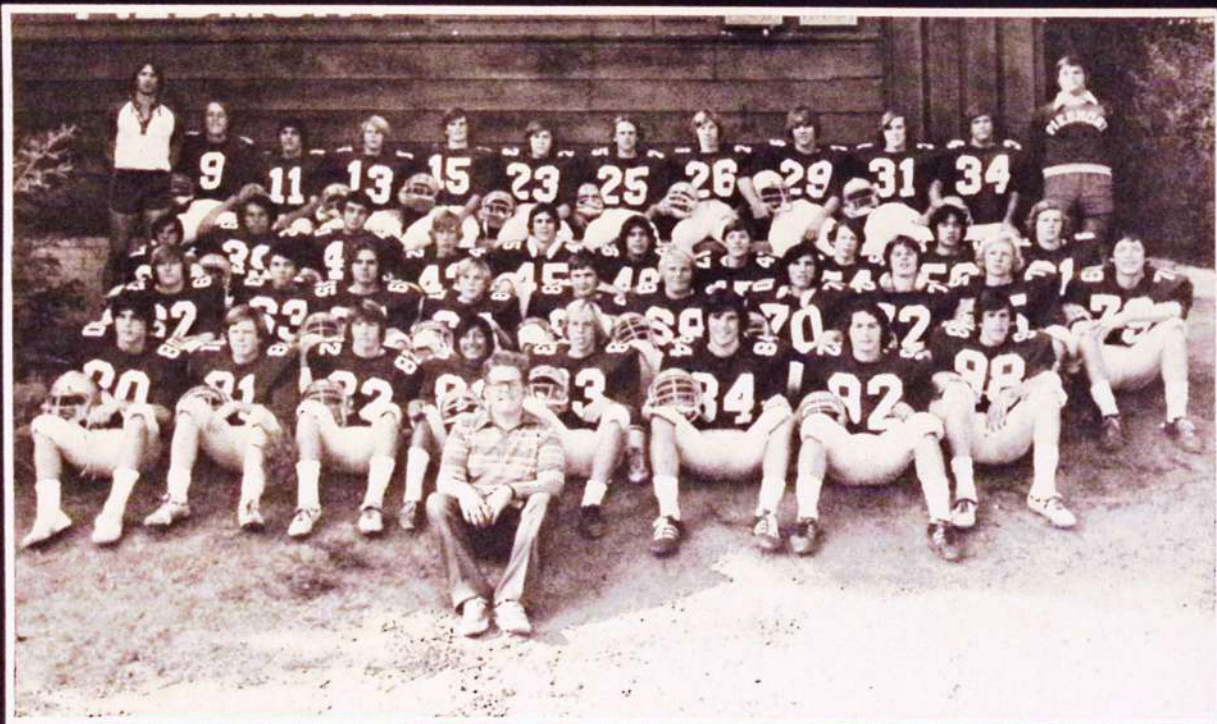

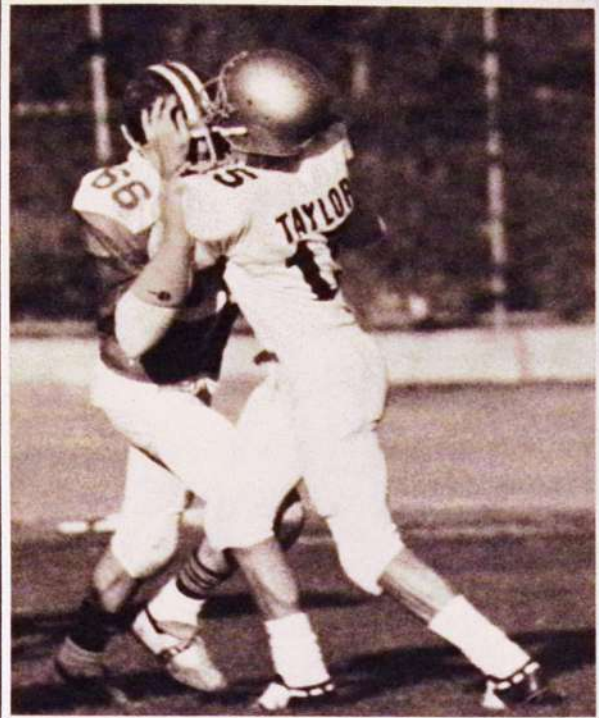

The players on this year's football team included: BOTTOM ROW- Chris Knapp, Harlan Grove, Kurk Vukasin, Steve Rodgers, Peter Chovanes, Carl Nelson, Geoff Resnik, Jay Vukasin, Jeff Lee, Bill Reinhard, Brian Schlaak MIDDLE ROW- Chet Barney, Bob Dorward, Tom Mossburg, Mike Adams, Craig Selbach, Jim Moxon, Dennis Chan, Casey Ricksen, Mike Zanolli, Alec Nemon, Coach Bateman, Gino Chiodo, Coach Berstein, Jim Rowe, Coach Lavaroni TOP ROW- Dave Herrera, George Roeth, Howie Himmelman, Steve Beyrle, Scott Henderson, Ken Camporeale, Russ Graybehl, Scott Barram, Doug Albo, Dave Swan, Juan Aguirre, Mike Magee. Piedmont High School's Junior Varsity football team, under the coaching of Manny Myers and Assistant Mark Bernstein, finished the season with a 2-3 league record and a 3-5 overall record. The Junior Scots defeated Pacific 42-0 and Albany 12-6 in league play. In non-league competition the JV team edged St. Helena 8-6. The team lost to Alameda, San Leandro, and Encinal in league games, and to Miramonte and Moreau in non-league play.

Team captains Ken Farinsky, Andy Taylor, and Bob Coey kept the team spirit at a high level throughout the season.
