

VARSITY FOOTBALL

(kneeling, from left) Mike Magee, Scott Gunderson, Mike Otto, Chip Evans, Phil Dickinson, and Mike Voisenat. (second row): Ted Gallagher, Rock Tonkle, Alan Metheny, Paul Bryant, Bob Gray, Keith Strellis, Todd Stone, Andrew Taylor, and Kirk Trutner. (third row): George Roeth, Eric Rolph, Ken

Farinsky, Al Chan, Gavin Kent, Kirk Vukasin, Bob Coey, and Harlan Grove. (fourth row) Coach Kevin Mayer, Coach Mark McGinn, Mark Marinelly, Mike Zanolli, Dave Grigsby, Scott Barram, Jim Rowe, Steve Rogers, Tom Mossburg, Pat Barney, and Coach Mike Roof.

The final record for the 1978 Varsity Football team showed a disappointing 3-5 overall, and 3-3 in league play. But this was a year of many changes. Along with a new coach, Mike Roof, came a new coaching philosophy, which included building for future teams; with almost half the team comprised of talented sophomores and juniors, the future looks very promising. In a year where the championship looked possible, bad breaks and injuries turned what could have been a winning season into a fair one. Although losing 5 of 8 games, the Scots were within striking distance in all the games they lost, except in the 52-0 drubbing by North Coast Champions Alameda. But true to the pride the Clan has shown all year, they came back the very next week and destroyed Pacific 45-19. With a strong field of teams in the ACAL this year, Piedmont placed only two players on the first team All-League. On offense Bob Gray was chosen at the Wide Receiver Position, and on defense Mike Zanolli was chosen for one of the Linebacker spots. In summing up the season, one would say it was a learning experience for both coach and players. Next year's team should be the team to beat in the ACAL.

Scott Barram (21) sets up to pass; Paul Bryant (30) moves up field; Mike Magee (33) plows through the line.

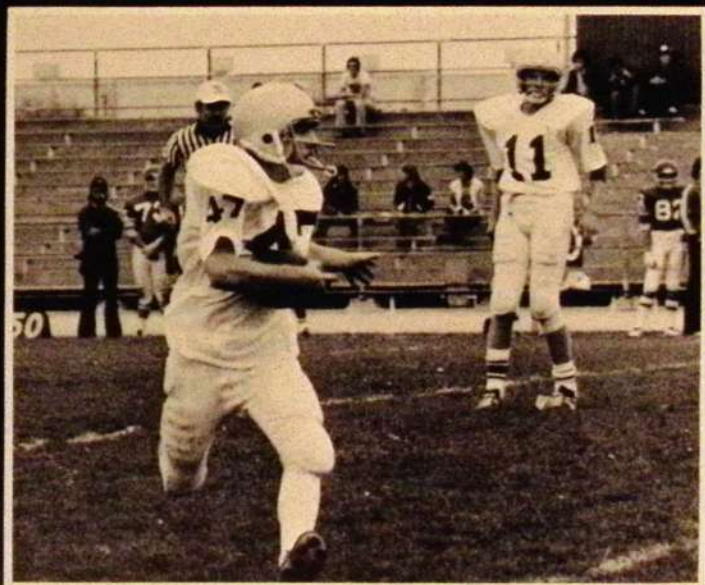

The 1978 Junior Varsity Football Team: (top row) Ed Krauss, Kurt Reinhold, Kurt Herzog, Doug Ousterman, Dave Willke, Coach Ted Cramer; (second row) Tom Witter, Craig Taylor, Roger Ashton, Sandy Wu, Brent Bowman; (third row) Stu Lee, Scott James, Alec Vukasin, Jeff

Arthur, Todd Gates, Manager Tom Libbey; (fourth row) Ted Brennan, Randy Schwartz, Tom Meagher, Dick Burns, Coach Manny Myers; (bottom row) Jack Feist, Scott Belows, and Mike Kirby.

Although this year was not one of victory for the Junior Varsity team, it did provide them with a season of hard work and a learning experience. They closed out the season with a 0-5-1 league record and a 0-7-1 overall record.

The Junior Scotsmen played hard and were never far behind their opponents in competition. They barely lost the game to San Leandro in the last quarter, 22 to 21. The games against Alameda and Pacific were equally close, 29 to 28 and 6 to 6.

The JV's lost several fine players to the Varsity, including Steve Ellis, Jim Danielson, Pete Dickinson, and Todd Stone. The strength and spirit of such players as Roger Ashton, Dave Willke, and Pat Shirley kept the team together through the last game of the 1978 season.

Quarterback Tom Witter (top) attempts a pass against San Leandro; Dave Willke (bottom) charges through Harry Ells' JV defense

Team members were: David Adams, Cory Anderson, Jeff Boberg, Keith Bryan, Kurt Bryan, Rene deGuzman, Nat Dodge, Mike Gwynn, Robert Hann, Kent Hill, Scott Hill, Tom Jenkins, Eric Kasprik, Bill Kennedy, Eric Lucero, Chris Lundell, Steve McIntire, Seamus Meagher, Paul Morris, Bob

McClain, Mike Rickson, Joe Numura, Jeff Rinehart, John Rudy, Greg Schneider, Sandy Schwab, Steve Slutzkin, Tim Smith, Stuart Taylor, Peter Tanzillo, Craig Thomas, John Vlhondreas, Eric Voulgares, Brandon Wier, Bret Zische. Coaches were: Mike Humphries, and Tye Tyson.

Finishing off the season with an outstanding 6-0 record, the 1978 Frosh Football team captured first place in the league. Coached by Mike Humphries and Tye Tyson the team went through the season with such astounding victories, as the 62-7 win over Encinal. Leading the offensive team was Sandy Schwab, and Kent Hill, and leading the defensive team was Eric Voulgares and Eric Lucero.

